

Emerging Filmmakers Grant Program

Overview

The Emerging Filmmakers Grant seeks to provide a funding resource to Broward County-based filmmakers to produce individual projects, with eligibility based on a set of Broward County-centric criteria. After an application has been approved, a grant of $10,000 will be distributed in four quarterly payments (subject to appropriation each fiscal year) after meeting all required criteria in phases of pre-production, production, post-production, and completed project.

Eligibility / Requirements

- A project must be either a Production or a Digital Media Project, as defined below.
- Applicants must provide proof of at least six (6) months of residency in Broward County. Two forms of proof are required.
- All funds from the $10,000 grant must be utilized in Broward County on Qualifying Payroll and Qualifying Expenditures.
- Matching funds (totaling $10,000) are required, and proof of the available funds must be provided with the initial application submission along with the full budget. Proof may come in the form of a bank statement, proof of present grant award (non-Broward County grants only), or guarantee from financial institution/film fund/loan company. Proof of funding from outside source must come with a notarized authorization letter from investor / funding entity. NOTE: Given that the grant is for $10,000 and applicants are required to provide proof of matching funds of $10,000, the total project budget must meet or exceed $20,000 total.*
- Applicants may only qualify for one grant every other year.
- The applicant must be a practicing professional filmmaker (director, producer, or writer) who in the past three (3) years has created a body of original film(s) and has received distribution or acceptance into a major film festival, as defined below. A resume/CV, proof of distribution, and examples of past and current work are required to support this claim.
- A completed script, story synopsis, and filming schedule must be submitted with the application.
- 80% of the Production Days must be filmed in Broward County.

- 70% of Cast and Crew must be Broward County residents. NOTE: required cast and crew percentage may not include background talent, but if they are Broward County residents, their salaries count towards eligible expenditures.
- 50% of vendors must be Broward County businesses and (15%) of those Broward County businesses must be County Business Enterprise / Small Business Enterprise (CBE/SBE) (or best efforts must be made with assistance from the Film Commission to hire CBE/SBE's registered with the Office of Economic and Small Business Development).
- Broward County logo must be included in the credits.
- Promotional stills and marketing materials must be provided prior to the release of the production project to the Film Commission for use on their website and other marketing efforts.
- Grantees must provide plans for project distribution (film festivals, screenings, agreements with networks/streaming platforms, etc) for project tracking and promotional purposes.

Definitions

Cast and Crew means personnel hired on a Production Project who work as talent in front of the camera or in the technical and practical business of shooting a Production.

County Business Enterprise / Small Business Enterprise (CBE/SBE) means the definition of CBE and SBE in Ord. No. 2012-33, Section 1-81.2, Broward County Code of Ordinances.

Digital Media Project means visual effects or digital animation sequences.

Major Film Festivals include globally recognized, reputable festivals. For a full list of acceptable major film festivals, click here.

Production means a theatrical or direct-to-video motion picture; a made-for-television motion picture; visual effects or digital animation sequences produced in conjunction with a motion picture; a short film; a documentary film; a television pilot program; a presentation for a television pilot program; a television series or streaming, including, but not limited to, a drama, a comedy, a soap opera, a telenovela, or a miniseries production. One season of a television series is considered one production.

Production Days means the combined number of days used to create a Production, including pre-production, days spent on-site making the Production, and post-filming days, which includes the preparation concluding a Production as well as editing a Production to achieve a final product.

Production Project means an eligible Production or Digital Media Project.

Qualifying Expenditures means payment for such goods and services and labor per requirements from the date of submission of the application through the Duration of Project (as defined below). A list of eligible expenditures is available upon request from the Film Commission. Proof of Broward County residency requires a copy of a Florida driver's license and one (1) other supporting document. A list of supporting documents is available at <http://www.flhsmv.gov/ddl/address.html>.

Qualifying Payroll means payment of salary to Broward County residents for work performed from the first day of pre-production to the last day of post-production ("Duration of Project"), excluding salary in excess of 10% of the total budget for any Broward County resident.

Application Process

A qualifying application and required accompanying paperwork must be completed in full and submitted via email to the Broward County Film Commission prior to principal photography. Emailed documents must be submitted in PDF form. The only email address where applications may be submitted is Film@FilmLauderdale.org. If by USPS please send to:

Broward County Film Commission

Attn: Emerging Filmmakers Grant Program

115 South Andrews Avenue Suite A680 Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

Upon submission of the application, the applicant will receive by email a confirmation message acknowledging receipt of the application. The application and required paperwork will be reviewed for accuracy and will be vetted.

Each Production Project must start principal photography within 120 days after application submission. The finished project must be presented within 180 days of production start date. At Film Commission's discretion, one reasonable extension to deliver finished project can be granted if there are extenuating circumstances.

Incomplete applications and paperwork will NOT be accepted. Application package is only considered complete when all required documents have been received.

*Note to applicant: All documents related to the Incentive Agreement, including but not limited to all exhibits, the application, audit results, financial documents, and certificates of insurance are public records and subject to Chapter 119, Florida Statutes. No paperwork that has personal information, including and not limited to Social Security numbers, medical records, etc. will be accepted. All personal information must be redacted.

If any project is not completed after any phase of the grant being awarded, the applicant will no longer be eligible for future Broward County Emerging Filmmakers Grants (or other Broward County grant opportunities) in perpetuity and could be subject to legal recourse.

Applicants cannot apply to any other Broward County Screen Incentive Program options per each individual project.

Grant Approval Process

After an application has been submitted and all paperwork has been reviewed for criteria and additional vetting, the application will be presented to the Film Commissioner. If application is approved by the Film Commissioner, then an agreement will be presented to the applicant for signature. The agreement will be then presented to County Administration for final approval.

Public Records

All documents related to the Incentive Agreement, including but not limited to all exhibits, the application, audit results, financial documents, and certificates of insurance are public records and subject to Chapter 119, Florida Statutes.
